

MAGIE'S SHORT BIO

Magie is the founder of a company that she started with just $800 and later sold to Campbells Soup for 231M. She helps entrepreneurs discover their hidden personal power so they can increase their revenue and make a bigger impact in the world.

After living a life of poverty in an orphanage for 18 years, Magie developed some mindset strategies to help cope with the challenges, and these strategies changed her life. With over 30 years of experience, Magie is now dedicated to helping others unleash their full potential using her mind optimization techniques to accelerate their true success.

Magie is an internationally recognized speaker and expert in the field of business and personal development. She has been featured in publications, magazines, and television networks such as Daystar TV, Bloomberg TV's "The American Dream" and many more.

She is the recipient of numerous awards including the Hall of Fame at the University of Charleston and Nobel Entrepreneur Prize in Mexico. She works with many Fortune 100 and 500 companies, as well as A-listers including professional athletes, influencers and thought leaders.
